Mr. Spillman and Prof. Level.

The Training School for Sunday School Workers opened at Second Baptist Church yesterday afterneon at a ociock.

There were no instructions given, other than a stirring speech by Rev. B. W. Spillman, of Kinston, N. C., and a speech by Professor I. P. Level. Both speeches were masterpieces on Sunday school work. Dr. Spillman's theme was 'Visions of a New Day,' and all present were simply charmed with the presentation of this subject.

Professor Level followed Dr. Spillman, using for his subject, "Why the Baseball Team Catches the Crowd." Professor Level is a powerful speaker, and when he took his seat the andience seemed to wake to the fact that they had just deank in ope of the greatest Sunday school addresses ever delivered in this city.

gress Against Captain Lamb.

The Republicans of the Third Congressional District will hold a convention in Manchester to-morrow to name a candidate for Congress against Hon John Lamb the Democratic incumbent.

There is no certainty at this time on whose shoulders the simple honor will fall, but it is likely that Mr. George A. Hanson will be the man.

Mr. Hanson is a clever speaker, and will probably make the race if the other comes to him without division. He is not seeking it, however, and is understood not to desire it.

The convention promises to be perfunctory to a degree, and will be held mainly to carry out orders from the hig leaders at the national capital.
